

LAWRENCE AND HOLLERN HONORED BY PENNSYLVANIA INSTITUTE OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

July 22, 2009 — Bruce Lawrence and Chris Hollern have been named to the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants' (PICPA) 40 Under 40 List of Members to Watch.

Each year, the PICPA recognizes 40 up-and-coming young leaders in the accounting profession. Bruce and Chris will be honored at a reception in September in Harrisburg.

Bruce is a manager in the Meadville office. He specializes in nonprofit and government auditing and management consulting. Bruce is a member of the firm's Quality Control Committee, Audit Risk Assessment Standards Committee and Government and Nonprofit Services Group.

Bruce graduated from Edinboro University with a Bachelor of Science in accounting. He is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA and PICPA). In 2008, Bruce was elected to the PICPA Professional Ethics Committee.

Bruce lives in Meadville with his wife, Carolyn, and two their daughters, Shannon and Jenni.

Chris Hollern is a staff accountant in the Erie office. He specializes in nonprofit and government auditing. Chris is a member of the firm's Nonprofit and Government Services Group.

Chris earned his degree in accounting and finance from Penn State University. He is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA and PICPA). Chris is chair of the PICPA Erie Chapter's Emerging Professionals Group.

McGill, Power, Bell & Associates is a regional certified public accounting firm with offices in Erie and Meadville. The firm, with more than 35 CPAs, professionals and support staff, provides comprehensive accounting and financial services to corporations, other businesses, nonprofit organizations, government agencies and individuals throughout western Pennsylvania.

###