

LOCAL CPAs SPEAK AT PKF NATIONAL CONFERENCE

March 21, 2007 — Robert M. Power, Jr., CPA, a partner in the firm, and Robert McMunigle, CPA, a manager at the firm, recently spoke at the PKF national Conference in Las Vegas, NV.

Power and McMunigle lectured on a component of the business valuation process called discount of marketability as it relates to mergers and acquisitions, litigation support and succession planning. McGill, Power, Bell & Associates specializes in several accounting and financial services including business valuation and litigation support services.

PKF International is a worldwide association of more than 400 accounting firms.

Power, who shares time between the Erie and Meadville offices, has been a member of McGill, Power, Bell & Associates for 36 years and a partner for 30 years. He specializes in business valuations, litigation support services, manufacturing and management consultant services.

McMunigle, who is based in the Meadville office, has been with the firm for more than 20 years. He specializes in tax planning, estate planning and business succession planning. He is certified as a Personal Financial Specialist and offers personal financial planning.

McGill, Power, Bell & Associates is a regional certified public accounting firm with offices in Erie, Meadville and Grove City. The firm, with more than 50 partners, professionals and support staff, provides comprehensive accounting and financial services to corporations, other businesses, non-profit organizations, government agencies and individuals throughout western Pennsylvania.

###