

FIRM PROMOTES FOUR STAFF MEMBERS

February 15, 2010 — McGill, Power, Bell & Associates, LLC has promoted four staff members. Jessica Hamilton, CPA, Chris Hollern, Debbie Lewis and Christopher Pecoraro were promoted to senior accountant.

Hamilton has five years of experience in accounting and specializes in auditing of nonprofit and government organizations. Hamilton graduated from Clarion University with a Bachelor of Science in accounting. She lives in Guys Mills with her husband, Andy, and their son, Bradley Jack.

Hollern specializes in accounting and auditing for businesses, nonprofits and government organizations. He earned his degree in accounting and finance from Penn State Erie – The Behrend College. Hollern was named to the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants' (PICPA) 40 Under 40 List of Members to Watch in 2009. He resides in Erie with his wife, Megan.

Lewis has been with the firm for four years. She focuses her practice in government and nonprofit accounting and auditing. Lewis graduated with a Bachelor of Science in accounting from Edinboro University. She and her husband, Frank, live in Edinboro with their two sons, Joseph and Jacob.

Pecoraro was hired in February of 2008. He specializes in accounting, auditing and tax consulting for businesses, manufacturers and nonprofit organizations. Pecoraro has a degree in accounting from Gannon University. He lives in Erie with his wife, Heidi.

McGill, Power, Bell & Associates is a regional certified public accounting firm with offices in Erie and Meadville. The firm, with more than 35 CPAs, professionals and support staff, provides comprehensive accounting and financial services to corporations, other businesses, nonprofit organizations, government agencies and individuals throughout western Pennsylvania.

###